6. GATEWAY ENERGY STORAGE LLC TRANSPORTATION OF LITHIUM ION BATTERIES THROUGH NYE COUNTY (Non-Action Item): Chair Lewis notified the LEPC that in early April the County was notified that Gateway Energy Storage, LLC in southern California received an emergency order from the EPA to remove approximately 2.5 million pounds of damaged and/or faulty lithium ion batteries from the southern California facility to a recycling facility in Sparks, NV. There is scheduled to be 2 trucks per day transporting up to 48,000 lbs of lithium ion batteries, starting in April 2025, and probably ending in late July or early August. The shipments will enter Nye County at SR373 in Amargosa Valley and continue to the US95 and up through Esmeralda, Mineral, Lyon and Storey Counties. The transport vehicles will not be specially placarded or have any other type of identifying information. All response agencies as well as neighboring agencies have been notified and will be updated as schedules are received.
7. COMMUNITY HEALTH NURSE UPDATE (Non-Action Item): CHN Crystal Kennedy provided the LEPC with an update on Community Health Activities. Crystal reported that there have been a lot of staffing changes at NV DPBH, which is increasing the scheduling timeline for vaccination events. She stated that she should have dates for back to school events throughout the County confirmed by the next LEPC meeting.
8. NV DEM UPDATE: Kimberly Palma-Ortega, Tribal Public Health Preparedness Coordinator with the State of Nevada Division of Emergency Management provided the committee with an update on NV DEM activities. Kimberly reported that mission support is available to provide community emergency notification support if needed; NDEM-State-wide 911 Coordinator, Tawanna Gerchman POC: t.gerchman@dem.nv.gov asked her to inform agencies that the seventh annual FCC Annual report on the collection and use of 911 funds has been published. The report consists of three parts. Dispatch Information: Staffing levels, total calls for service in 2024 that will include voice, text, etc. IT information: cyber security and financial information. Tawanna is requesting IT and financial information from Nye County for the report. Kimberly reported that the Homeland Security Grant Program (HSGP) application period is now open and the Emergency Management Preparedness Grant Program (EMPG) application period will probably open within the next 2 weeks. Some staffing changes within NV DEM: Laney Parow is the new Recovery/Mitigation Grants Supervisor; Kimberly is designated as the Nye County/NV DEM "Blue Sky" Liaison. The Preparedness/Operations section is looking to hire a new State Exercise Officer, there is a planned NVOC exercise in August.
