20 that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the

22 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the 23 court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the 24 child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the 25 court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning him to his habitual from this state. If the noncustodial parent refuses to give that consent, the custodial parent shall, before he leaves this state with the child, petition the court for permission to move the child. The
