

Crime Victim's Bill of Rights

Chapter 178 > (<https://www.leg.state.nv.us/NRS/NRS-178.html>) of the Nevada Revised Statutes and the Constitution of the State of Nevada > (<https://www.leg.state.nv.us/const/nvconst.html>) recognizes the following needs and rights of crime victims:

- You have the right to know the status of the case in which you are involved.
- You have the right to be free from intimidation or dissuasion.
- You have the right to know when your impounded property can be released.
- You have the right to receive a witness fee for lawful obedience to a subpoena.
- You have the right to understand the existing victim compensation laws and receive compensation if applicable.
- You have the right to a secure waiting area, which is not available to the defendant and his/her family, when you are at court.
- You have the right to know when the defendant is released from custody before or during trial, upon written request from the appropriate department.
- You have the right to know when the offender is released from prison, upon written request from the appropriate department.

For more information regarding your rights and responsibilities as a crime victim and witness, click here >

(<http://nvpac.nv.gov/uploadedFiles/nvpacnv.gov/Content/Resources/RightsResponsibilitiesCrimeVictimOrWitness.pdf>)