Nye County Board of Commissioners Meeting: Materials and Participation

TONOPAH, NV- In response to Governor Sisolak's Declaration of Emergency Directive 006 suspending certain requirements related to the conduct of public meetings (available on the Governor's website here: http://gov.nv.gov/News/Emergency_Orders/2020/2020-03-22_-_COVID-19_Declaration_of_Emergency_Directive_006/)

Nye County is taking the following actions as proactive measures to safeguard the citizens of Nye County against health threats related to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) to reduce public gatherings and promote social distancing.

The Board of County Commissioners will be conducting their future meetings electronically to reduce social gatherings and interpersonal contact until the state's Declaration of Emergency is lifted. Consequently, there will be no physical location designated for future Board meetings where members of the public are allowed to attend and participate in-person. Copies of the agenda will no longer be posted at a physical location. Please review the following ways to access meeting materials or to participate in upcoming board meetings.

Meeting materials will be posted on the following websites:

State of Nevada Public Notices: <https://notice.nv.gov/>

Nye County Meeting: <https://www.nyecounty.net/AgendaCenter/Board-of-County-Commission-Meetings-2>
