Subject: Sander's Family Winery Continued Suspension and Notice of Hearing to Show Cause

Good morning,

Attached is the draft notice of continued suspension and hearing to show cause for April 15th. Please review and amend or approve as you see fit. I added a line advising activities related to the license should not be conducted as it was mentioned at the last hearing that he is still open and operating in some capacity. Also, if anyone thinks it is too soon to send the notice of hearing, I can revise the notice to only identify continued suspension.

If no revisions are needed in this first draft, please serve the notice and return the signed notice to me along with proof of service.

Thank you,

Subject: Sanders Winery

As documented under NCSO Case # 24NY-3733, Lt. Williams of the NCSO received information that the owner/operator of Sanders Family Winery, a Nye County licensed Retail Liquor business, has been purchasing Franzia wine from retail businesses in Las Vegas and Pahrump and pouring the Franzia wine into Sanders bottles, labeling the bottles as Sanders wine and selling the bottles. (Violation of NRS 369)

On November 27th, 2024, Lt. Williams and other investigators of NCSO inspected the Sanders Family

Winery located at 3780 E. Kellogg. During this inspection, they located several empty boxes of Franzia wine in the dumpster of the business. They also located the internal plastic container and the plastic container were empty. An employee of the business, [REDACTED], was evasive and uncooperative.

Photos were taken of the empty Franzia boxes and plastic containers. Investigators also located in the warehouse empty and filled bottles of wine. Some bottles had labels applied and some had no labels.

On 12/5/24, Lt. Williams and Lt. Eisenloffel interviewed Jack Sanders, the owner of Sanders Winery. Sanders admitted to them that he purchases Franzia wine boxes from Las Vegas and Pahrump retailers for the past three years. He said that he fills his Sanders bottles with the wine and adds preservatives. The bottles are then sealed and labeled and sold as Sanders wine.

Sanders acknowledged that he has not contacted Franzia for approval to sell their wine as his own label. He said that he purchased each Franzia box for under $20.00 and that he sells each liter of Sanders wine for approx.. $20.00 each.

Violation of NRS 369.487: Sanders purchased liquor from retailers instead of state-licensed wholesalers, violating this statute.

Violation of NRS 597.260: By rebranding and selling Franzia wine as his own without customer consent, Sanders violated the law against substituting one brand for another without customer approval.

Violation of NRS 205.210: Misrepresenting the origin of the wine and using false trademarks constitute selling goods with false labeling, warranting investigation and prosecution by the Attorney General.

Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses: Sanders misrepresented cheap Franzia wine as locally vinted and bottled wine, selling it at a higher profit, thus violating the law against obtaining money through fraudulent means.

The interview with Jack Sanders confirmed that Sanders Family Winery engaged in fraudulent activities by rebranding and selling Franzia wine as their own. This deception involved multiple violations of Nevada statutes, including purchasing liquor from unauthorized sources, false advertising, and misrepresentation. The investigation is ongoing, and further actions will be taken based on the findings.

Also on 12/5/24, Lt. Williams interviewed [REDACTED] who was employed at Sanders Winery from [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said that Jack Sanders made trips to Las Vegas approx.. twice a week and believed that these trips were to purchase wine.

The interviews were video and audio recorded on Body Cameras.
